Learning German basics by exploring Beethoven's Bonn

>> Group excursion

Experience the heritage of Bonn's most popular son: Ludwig van Beethoven. This adventure starts with a guided tour through the city center of Bonn. Passing the statue of Beethoven on Münsterplatz, the Marktplatz with its historic town hall, the famous Beethoven-Haus and the beautiful waterfront of the Rhine, the tour will finally lead you into the cozy beer garden Schänzchen. While having a drink you can review the interesting information received during the tour. The highlight of this special tour is the German language course, which takes place not only during the city tour, but also in the relaxed atmosphere of the beer garden and teaches you the most important German expressions for tourists. The guided tour is offered in English, Spanish, French, Italian, Russian, Mandarin and Arabic.

Optional: It is possible to make a stop at the Beethoven-Haus to have a guided tour through the museum. This museum is visited by around 100,000 people from all over the world every year. The Beethoven-Haus presents the biggest Beethoven collection in the world and gives a lively insight into Beethoven's life and work.

The whole tour including the walk and the language course in the beer garden takes two hours. Each participant receives a map of the city and a booklet containing the German expressions to be learned in the language course.

The size of the group is limited to 20 people. Multiple groups can do the tour at the same time.
